

Jeremy D. Satterwhite is a member of Flipper Temple African Methodist Episcopal Church in Atlanta, Georgia where he serves as a member of Steward Board I, Web Administrator & A/V Technician.

Jeremy served as the Connectional Going Green Committee Chair for the YPD; under his leadership $20,000 was contributed at the 2015 Quadrennial Convention to AME-SADA to support the building of water wells in Haiti, Tanzania, &

Liberia. Jeremy is a former Episcopal President of the 6th Episcopal District YPD. In this capacity Jeremy emphasized mission work, voter education, community police engagement & gun violence prevention as well as higher education; to include four-year colleges & universities, community colleges, trade schools, and the military. This was accomplished through L.E.A.D. (Leadership, Education & Development) an annual one-day symposium. Jeremy believes that all young people should have an opportunity to succeed in life and that the church should provide the tools to ensure their success

Jeremy serves as the Financial Secretary for the Atlanta-North Georgia Conference Lay Organization. Jeremy is the Immediate Past President of the 6th Episcopal RAYAC where he had the privilege of serving as the first elected president. On July 1, 2022, at the 29th Connectional Christian Education Congress in Atlanta, Georgia, Jeremy was elected President of the International Richard Allen Young Adult Council. He is the 13th President to serve this young adult component of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; historically known as the Richard Allen Youth Council. In this capacity, Jeremy strives to create a culture for young adults in the life of the church.

Professionally, Jeremy is an Implementation Consultant with Tyler Technologies Inc., a software development company that provides software and solutions specifically designed to empower those who serve the public. In the Municipal & Schools Division (Telematics Implementation), Jeremy works with student transportation professionals across the United States & Canada to ensure the safe transport of every student, peace of mind for parents, and efficiency for districts with industry-leading pupil transportation technology. Jeremy is also a licensed funeral service apprentice at Tri-Cities Funeral Home in Lithonia, GA. Jeremy lives by his personal motto "Greet each new day with enthusiasm and await the break of everyday with great expectations!"